

ARCHAEOLOGICAL PROJECT SERVICES

Archaeological Project Services is looking for Site Assistants, a Supervisor and a Project Officer with experience of fieldwork within the UK commercial environment to join our busy and friendly team. We are looking to expand our staff in response to a number of exciting archaeological projects which commence in autumn on a range of sites across the Midlands and East of England. For some positions, an immediate start is possible.

Site Assistants (initial 3 month contract with potential to extend)
Salary range: £18,600 - £20,000 p.a. (depending on experience).

Applications are invited from candidates with a minimum of 6 months experience in excavation (candidates with less experience will be considered). A full clean UK driving licence is desirable.

Supervisor (initial 3 month contract with potential to extend)
Salary: £21,043 p.a.

Applications are invited from candidates with a minimum of one year supervisory experience in excavation. Candidates will have the ability to work independently and take responsibility for small teams. In addition to proven field skills you will have experience of post-excavation analysis and report writing. Experience in the use of GPS survey equipment would be an advantage. A full clean UK driving licence is essential.

Project Officer (initial 6 month contract with potential to extend)
Starting salary: From £22,966 p.a. (depending on experience)

Applications are invited from candidates with a minimum of one year supervisory experience in the field and experience of post-excavation. Candidates will have the ability to work independently and to deadlines and take responsibility for project work. In addition to field skills and the ability to lead excavation teams you will have a proven track record of post-excavation analysis and report writing skills. A full clean UK driving licence is essential.

For all the above posts:

- A current CSCS card is desirable
- A First Aid certificate would be advantageous
- Membership of CfA is preferred
- The flexibility to work away from base is essential
- A degree in archaeology or a related discipline is desirable

Based in Heckington, Lincolnshire, APS is a long established organisation offering a comprehensive range of archaeological services across the country. Part of the charity, Heritage Lincolnshire, we undertake a wide and diverse range of projects across the whole heritage sector, delivered by a multi-skilled professional staff. Current examples of projects include a forthcoming community archaeology dig in the grounds of The Old Kings Head, a 16th century Coaching Inn which the charity is shortly to restore, and delivering the Lincolnshire Long Barrows research project on behalf of Historic England.

Employment benefits for all staff include:

- Competitive salaries (above CfA minima) for a 37 hour week
- From 28 days annual leave (including statutory holidays)
- Opportunities for training and career progression

- ClfA subscriptions
- Free accommodation and subsistence payments for projects away from base
- Free transport to site and paid travel time to site
- Driver allowance and driver overtime payment
- Full PPE including wet weather gear
- Company pension scheme
- Childcare vouchers

APS welcomes applications from all sections of the community and is committed to promoting equality of opportunity. It is essential all applicants provide proof of identity and eligibility to work in the UK prior to the commencement of employment.

To apply for the above posts send a full CV with names of two referees and a covering letter by email to info@apsarchaeology.co.uk. (Please include the relevant post title in the subject line.)

Closing date for applications: Wednesday 19th September